and Anti-Pain Pills as recommended. In a day or two she was well and we are sure that if she had taken Dr. Miles' Nervine at the very first symptoms she would have prevented the attack.

Rev. E. B. Slade, Manhattan, Kan. LaGrippe usually leaves its victims in a weakened condition as the fever and pains quickly sap one's vitality. To enable the nervous system to recover from this depression no remedy is better than Dr. Miles' Nervine.

Sold under a guarantee assuring the return of the price of the first bottle if it fails to benefit. At all Druggists.

Old wire netting, cut into five by seven inch pieces and fastened to wooden handles, will make effective fly-swatters.

A half-pint of apple, pie-plant, cranberry or lemon juice, added to four quarts of strawberries, with the usual amount of sugar, makes excellent jam with an agreeable tart taste.

Make a thick mixture of powdered sugar and white of egg, add to it a half-pound of seedless raisins chopped fine, and spread between graham crackers. Fine for five o'clock tea or the picnic basket.

Some first-class linoleum for the kitchen floor, a five dollar oil stove and a pump connected with a clean, reliable cistern will make your had-working wife about fifteen years younger in soul and body. If you don't believe it, Mr. Farmer, just you try the experiment!

Emmett Selby met with considerable trouble and narrowly averted a serious accident to his mule team while hauling a load of pease to town Saturday. When crossing the Birds creek bridge both hind feet of one of the mules broke through the bridge and before he could halt the other mule he wagon was pulled over the fallen mule in such a way that he was forced to unload his pease, cut the mule loose and run the wagon out over the animal. As it terminated the animal was not seriously injured, but did have its back and legs skinned some. That bridge unquestionably is badly in need of some repair work.

Prof. F. S. Chance has recently held demonstration meetings at Pleasant Hill, Genesis and at the farm of James Smith north of town. At each meeting the attendance was good, but owing to rain no cultivation demonstration was possible at all the meetings. He held a meeting at Lowenthal Friday night which was largely attended and much interest was manifested by the farmers of that section. Nothing speaks in more certain tones that our people are wide awake and making rapid progress along all lines than the great interest they are showing in farming. It is very probable that there is not another county in the state where the farmers are doing a better class of farming or making greater progress than here in Cumberland county.

TRADE CONDITIONS.

Heavy European Orders Promise Much Business, But Failures Increase and Business Decreases as Against This Time One Year Ago.

The following taken from the general letter on Trade Conditions and a business forecast for the month of June, 1915, issued by the American National Bank, Nashville, Tennessee, shows trade conditions in a brief way:

Were it possible for America to deliver to Europe all of the goods, supplies and commodities purchased or ordered immediately, this country would be, by such action, plunged into a period of almost unbounded prosperity.

Orders on hand and unfilled for goods to be shipped abroad are estimated by various authorities all the way from a billion to a billion and a half of dollars in value.

Naturally the sale of this quantity of goods and commodities and the bringing of this much money or credit into this country would stimulate local or home demand to just that amount.

Some of these European orders will take months to fill and we are just now beginning to feel the commercial effects and benefits of the European war.

These benefits will increase, as the weeks pass, and faster than they have been increasing because we are rapidly adding to our facilities.

The export trade, commonly referred to nowadays as "war orders" means approximately that the same amount of domestic trade will immediately follow it.

We are even now beginning to feel a considerable growth in domestic demand which can reasonably be depended upon to steadily increase.

One large manufacturing concern doing usually a business of over 50 million dollars annually and which is not accepting any "war orders" is doing business at present at the rate of more than 75 million dollars a year. There are numerous similar evidences of the healthy growth of domestic business.

BANK CLEARINGS.

Bank clearings for April exceeded 15 billion dollars, an increase of nearly one per cent over the same month last year.

This is in the face of the fact that the establishment of the Federal Reserve Banks would naturally make a material reduction in the showing of bank clearings because of the new method of clearing in the Federal Reserve cities.

BUSINESS FAILURES.

Business failures for April were something over 1,800 in number compared with 1,883 in March and 1,278 in April of last year.

The total liabilities of the failed concerns were approximately 39 million dollars compared with liabilities of 19 million dollars for the concerns failing in April, 1914.

This failure record on its face would look bad were the assets of the failed concerns not considered in conjunction with the liabilities.

It is customary to talk about the number of concerns failing and the total liabilities, leaving the asset out of account, but the concerns failing in April with total liabilities of 39 million dollars had assets of over 20 million dollars, while those failing in April of last year, with liabilities of only 19 million dollars, had assets of only eight million dollars.

RAILROAD SHOWING.

Complete reports of earnings of railroads for March show gross of 238 million dollars compared with 253 millions a year ago, a decrease of 15 million dollars or about six per cent.

During the month operating expenses were decreased by 16 million dollars or nearly nine per cent as compared with the previous year, so that net earnings stood at 68 million dollars, just one million dollars more than in March of the previous year, an increase of more than one per cent.

Those railroads which have already reported April earnings show a gross of 60 million dollars compared with 66 millions a year ago, a decrease of about eight per cent.

It is believed that these early reports came from the railroads which have made the poorest showing for the month and that when all reports are in, the falling off in gross will not be greater than in March or about six per cent.

If the managements are as successful in reducing operating expenses in April as they are in March, it is possible that net earnings will be about the same as in April, 1913 and 1914, earnings for the latter year being 59 million dollars and for the former, 60 millions.

The idle car report on May 1st shows 289 thousand cars idle compared with 327 thousand the previous month and 229 thousand a year ago. The idle equipment included 100 thousand box cars and 119 thousand coal cars.

WAR SITUATION.

For several weeks the German and Austrian forces have been forcing back the Russian army with great slaughter and the capture of many prisoners. The strong fortress of Przemyśl, that was taken by the Russians in March, now seems likely to be retaken by the Teuton forces, which will mean that all Russia has gained in the war thus far against Austria will be mainly lost. The Russians are stiffening their forces the last few days and the Teutons may not accomplish the capture of the fort they are striving for so hard.

On the Galipoli peninsula the Turks have made such a strong stand against the allies that only siege work will drive them back. The efforts to clear the sea approaches to Constantinople has resulted in the loss of five battleships to the allies thus far, but nothing daunted they are keeping up the fight with no thought of ceasing.

The Italians are moving forward with their army through Austria with little resistance. Heavier fighting is expected soon. The situation in France and Belgium shows no marked change. Small gains are made daily by both sides, but nothing of marked importance has transpired.

WORD FROM GERMANY.

The first note has been received from Germany relative to the sinking of the Lusitania, and it is not satisfactory to Washington and is being severely criticized by the press of the country. The relations of this government with Germany are regarded as becoming more strained.

IN MEXICO.

It is now considered that the time is at hand when the war in Mexico must come to a speedy close or this country will likely intervene. Thousands of Mexican people are starving because of the war and President Wilson has issued a warning to all the warring factions stating that peace must come soon or the starving people be better cared for to avoid intervention by this government.
